There are a lot of lip products making their way on to the makeup scene lately. So, the Fashion Fixx team and I tested out some of the latest ones on the market and here are some of the ones we recommend you carry in your purse.

1. Devine Lip Wine Shimmers, $9.99 for three, Available on Devine Shimmers Website

DeVine's Lip Shimmers prove to be a nice alternative to lip stick that include nourishing benefits which are found in wine like grape seed oil, and other antioxidants. The lip coloring is moderate giving a more natural look and also includes shimmers for a little pizzazz. The Merlot color gives the most dramatic lip coloring that we tested out. One thing to note: you will need to re-apply if you want to keep the color strong. Rose and Bordeaux have more of a natural coloring and the Vanilla Spritzer and Champagne options are nice for just a hint of hue. The product has a light feel shortly after application and isn't very sticky so you don't have to worry about your hair getting stuck to your lips.

2. Badger Unscented Lipstick, $5 for 2, Found at most Major Drugstores and Amazon.com

Badger Balm is known for making organic products which promise relaxation and recovery. Now the Badger has turned itself loose to a light feeling lipstick line.

Reviewers classify Badger's balms as a product for those who have very touchy and sensitive skin, and I could not agree more!

3. Hello Kitty Lip Balm duo, $5.99 for 2, Target Stores

Who says only young girls can have fun with Hello Kitty? Sanrio, the creator of Hello Kitty, brings us some vibrant chap sticks and glosses for the young at heart!

These could make a great stocking stuffer for girls of all ages, and come in adorable tubes too, which can be attached to your key ring, if you need chap stick on you at all times.

4. Yves Saint Laurent Shimmering Lip Gloss, $36, Amazon

YSL is not only for those who live the luxe lifestyle. For $36, anyone can have their own little bottle of the premier designer's best makeup creation.

The gloss acts as both a protectant and a lip stain, which lasts over three hours long. You may find yourself actually having to take it off at the end of the day. Who knew there was a lip product that lasted during your day-long board meeting? YSL did.

5. Sephora's Super Shimmer Lip Gloss, Sephora, $3-$10

Sephora actually makes their own brand gloss that is fabulous! Not only does it keep your lips comfortable, but it is mega-shiny and the color palette you can pick from is girly and fresh.

I actually was "sampled" a tube of this glossy stuff from Sephora when testing out their other products, and the gloss is now one of my on the go favorites. It is very comparable to Lancome's Juicy Tubes, but for a fraction of the price, and with more stain.
